

I strongly oppose any regulations that the FCC might impose on satellite radio and its efforts to provide local content. I would welcome any local content that I could get on satellite radio.